SAA News

Congratulations to the Toyota Gazoo Racing SA team

The 2017 Dakar rally, which travelled through Paraguay, Bolivia and Argentina, has come to an end in the Argentine capital of Buenos Aires after 12 stages.

We would like to congratulate Toyota Gazoo Racing SA's Giniel de Villiers and navigator Dirk von Zitzewitz who managed a fifth spot finish in this year's race. The team put in a solid performance until a fuel pressure problem halted their charge in the early stages.

Toyota Gazoo Racing posted the third-fastest time of stage 12, trailing winner Loeb by just 30 seconds on the final stage of the event. South African Airways Cargo (SAA Cargo) is proud to be the airfreight partner of the Toyota Gazoo Racing South Africa Team for the 2017 Dakar Rally.

Events

Stellenbosch Wine Festival

24-26 February 2017

Three days of excellent wines, fantastic gourmet food and exciting performances from some of SA's top musicians. The Coetzenburg Athletics Stadium is the picturesque setting for one of the oldest wine tasting events in the country. With over 148 wineries in one venue, visitors can look forward to exploring hundreds of different wines. There's also fun to be had, with live bands, an all-new Wine Library where you can book a session with a winemaker, and the Momentum Health Kiddies Area.

Come experience the rich culture and unique flavours of Stellenbosch.

International Jazz Festival

31 March - 1 April 2017

"Africa's Grandest Gathering"

The annual Cape Town International Jazz Festival is back. It is one of the largest music events in sub-Saharan Africa, spanning over two days with five stages and over 40 international and local artists. The proudly South African event takes place in the beautiful mother city of Cape Town. The Festival is surrounded by great food, warm locals, beautiful beaches and breathtaking views.
