Dear Customer,

Africa Month is held in May annually and is commemorated differently throughout the African continent and abroad.

It is a month-long celebration of Africa Day on 25 May to mark the founding of the Organization of African Unity (OAU) – now known as the African Union – in 1963.

At SAA we celebrate the diversity of and the call to unity for the continent.

Keep reading to discover different destinations we fly to, taste delectable dishes and take delight in the different music of the continent.

We look forward to welcoming you onboard.

Regards,

South African Airways

SAA News

Flavours of Africa

From the humble maize porridges and root vegetables that form the basis of so many diets, to grand feasting dishes such as breyanis, tagines, stews and aromatic curries, Africa's favorite foods offer something for every palate.

Eat out at a Shisanyama in South Africa for some pap and vleis, or visit Malawi and eat "chambo" -- it's the most popular and best-known fish found in Lake Malawi.

Book your flight now www.flysaa.com and indulge your palate.

The heartbeat of Africa

There's more to African music than it just being "African". Music genres are plentiful on this continent.

From South Africa's Gqom, a style of house music from Durban, to Apala, a percussion-based style of the Muslim Yoruba people in Nigeria, West Africa, and Coupé-Decalé, Pop music from the Ivory Coast/France, SAA will fly you to the destination to enjoy the music in its truest form.
